

Mill Music

In music, we composed a piece using our voices and instruments. We performed this several times. Miss Das said that it really sounded like being in a Victorian mill! In Computing, we used Scratch to program a series of mill noises. We used repeat loops and had to time each sound to come in at just the right time. Some of us made the volume of specific sounds increase or decrease as the music played. These are just three examples of our work.

Mill sounds by Hamza

Mill sounds by Amber

Mill sounds by Mala