

Celebrating Difference

As part of our PSHE work about celebrating difference, we invited Councillor Dan Cohen, or Class Governor, into school to talk about what it means to be part of a community. We learned a lot about his experiences of being part of both the Jewish community and the Local Councillor community.

