

World Book Day 2017 at Highfield!

World Book Day 2017 at Highfield was probably one of the best we've ever had! To celebrate the 20th anniversary of this booky bonanza, we had to dress up as a word.

For example, I was Espionage!

Me!

You can learn more about this spectacular event at <http://www.worldbookday.com/>. Reading is probably the most important thing in my world and I LOVE to read. World Book Day is the most fun book-themed event on our calendar.

Thanks Mrs Colley!
