

In computing this afternoon, 6G used protractors, programmed, persevered, problem solved, practiced and perfected drawing shapes using Probots. We used our knowledge of shape, angles, length and sequencing to make a range of regular and irregular shapes. You could say our computing skills are really 'shaping up'!